

Textiles

Accepted at the following sites:

Catlett
Corral Farm
Markham
Marshall
Morrisville
New Baltimore
Remington

Baled and ready for shipment

How to Prepare for Recycling:

Dry, clean textiles

Paired shoes, belts and purses place separately in plastic bags

Examples of the following are accepted:

All clothing including coats, sweaters, shoes with holes, stained and torn clothing

Blankets, sheets, bath towels

Cloth draperies

Purses, handbags, cloth backpacks, belts of any material, and shoes of all kinds. Items need to be clean but do not need to be in rewearable condition.

For sanitary reasons, stuffed animals, pillows and mattresses are not collected for recycling.

Why Recycle?

Textiles are reused or shredded for use as stuffing in decorative pillows, casket linings, stuffed animals, and pet bedding.